Coming Events:

September 22: National Model A Day. See attached schedule!

September 29: Meet at 10:00 am at M. A. Green Shopping Center for 12:30 meal at Frenier Landing Restaurant & Oyster Bar outing.

Sundays: Angelo is usually at his Oak Street "car barn" working on one of his cars or yours if you ask him ahead of the date. Let us know at the meetings what we can do to help YOU.

For Sale: Steve Willey has a 1930 chassis with engine. Call him at 504-884-2004.

Jim Cruse has a 1930 Fordor in good/fair condition. It does have a rusty gas tank and is not being driven. Give him a call at: 504-428-4182 for more information.

Getting Ready for the First Start

Here is Peter Foles working with Angelo, Bill, Carl and Ray to get his pickup truck running. Frank Culotta did lots of work on the body and the engine was reworked and just installed in the truck. Looks beautiful! Also there helping were Adele Foles, Geoff Goodbee, Anthony Nicolich and Bob Sappington. Lots of fun working with friends to get your car up and running

Important Event

Model A Day Saturday, September 22, 2018

Get your Model A ready to roll for our big outing on Model A Day! The N.O. As will celebrate Model A Day on Saturday 22nd of September at the Kenner Lakefront Recreation Center at Shelter #1. The address is 3800 Loyola Drive, Kenner, LA. We will meet about 09:30 - 10:00 am at Shelter #1.

There are lots of trees for shade, plenty of parking for the A's and restrooms nearby. Please bring food for you and others, chairs, umbrellas, tents, whatever you might need to be comfortable. There is a fishing pier if you are ready to try to catch your lunch or dinner. Bring your signs giving the specs for your car that John printed. See you there!
